Mobile gaming company, evertap is setting Zombie Run free on Wednesday, October 30 as their official launch and Halloween special. Zombie Run is a fast action game for iOS devices where you the player are running through an abandoned farm after your car runs out of gas, when all the sudden you realize you aren't alone. You're amongst the dead tonight, and there's only one thing to do - Run! Kill zombies while picking up lifelines along the way to help you succeed on your mission.

Tampa, Florida - The mobile gaming company evertap is setting Zombie Run free on Wednesday, October 30 for their official launch and Halloween special. Zombie Run is a fast action game for iPhone, iPad and iPod touch where you the player are running through an abandoned farm after your car runs out of gas, when all the sudden you realize you aren't alone. You're amongst the dead tonight, and there's only one thing to do ... Run!

"Zombie Run was definitely a fun game concept and perfect for Halloween Time," says Stephan Noack, evertap Vice President of Operations, "Nothing better than shooting zombies in this fast action game."

Throughout the game, you'll be able to kill zombies while picking up lifelines along the way to help you succeed on your mission through the fields. From extra health to more bullets, the lifelines are key to your survival. However, get caught up in some of the trees and brush - and you'll be zombie food real quick. How long can you stay alive?
