

Use Your own Mac eGurus - Solve your identity on or off-line

Published on 06/27/09

Gurulicious Life is a one-stop-shop smooth solution to your personal or business project. Your own gurus handle your whole identity. We conceive, produce and consult. Differently. There's many consultants, agencies, studios, freelancers out there. It gets confusing. So we gathered a team of affordable eGurus to solve your problems practically, efficiently, and with no hype. You get transparency, results, success.

Atlantic Highlands, New Jersey - Gurulicious Life(C) is a 1-stop-shop smooth solution to your personal or business project. Your own gurus handle your whole identity. We conceive, produce and consult. Differently. There's many consultants, agencies, studios, freelancers out there. It gets confusing. So we gathered a team of affordable eGurus to solve your problems practically, efficiently, and with no hype or b.s. ;) You get transparency, results, success.

You communicate with humans, not drones. Best of all, you stand out from the norm - which is of essence in today's over-saturated media world. We do all the work that enables you to lead your delicious life, on- or off-line. Just ask your Gurulicious Life source, and you shall get. Relax with your own gurus, minus the responsibilities, as we customize your unique solutions, personal, small biz or corporate, locally or internationally, in these areas:

- * Identity/branding
- * Web development
- * SEO
- * Flash / Flex
- * Print and digital graphics
- * Interfaces and icons
- * Presentations
- * Packaging
- * Merchandising
- * Marketing
- * Consulting (marketing, Mac/Windows migration and connectivity, programming etc.)

We conceive, create and produce on Macs, code on Windows PCs. We design with Mac flair: you get simple sophistication, sophisticated simplicity, elegant solutions. Your results are balanced technically and graphically. As with anything Apple, you get original satisfaction guaranteed: no generic template solutions, as we respect your individuality. We use creative Mac software, because tools you use must be just as inspiring as the results.

Mac software is more fun, more efficient, more straight-forward, faster, more stable to use, more powerful. MacOSX is also the only OS that has Windows built-in, minus the daily grind of viruses and constant pop-ups and crashes, saving us and you time and costs. Simply put: we the most practical tools for the overall best results, to your benefit.

Guarantee? There's nothing to lose. You get the most affordable yet elegant solutions anywhere. You will never enjoy each stage of your project(s) as much as through your own eGurus. Just click on our site's Quote page - it's non-binding.
