Odessa, Ukraine, July 14 2007 - CS Odessa today has released a service pack for its business productivity software product ConceptDraw MINDMAP 5. Mind mapping and brainstorming techniques are often recognized as helping people boost their business effectiveness and productivity, and our latest offering MINDMAP 5 is a sophisticated tool that is easy to use for mapping out a new process or task.

ConceptDraw MINDMAP 5 provides a simple and intuitive toolset that can be used in project planning, personal organizing and team management tasks using the mind mapping visual metaphor. MINDMAP 5 easily integrates into one's daily office workflow because of the tight integration with the Microsoft Office product line and many popular project management tools.

MINDMAP 5.0.3 service pack is available to any registered customer of version 5. Individuals who are currently evaluating ConceptDraw MINDMAP 5.0.2 version can now download the newest release to evaluate our MINDMAP product offering.

Oleg Bocharnikov, Head of Product Management at CS Odessa, explains, "Customer value is a major goal we have at CS Odessa and we are continuously striving to put more value into our products, so our customers get more out. We have built this latest release of ConceptDraw MINDMAP to improve product value, address some valuable customer input we have received and demonstrate tremendous product value as it relates to our customers' needs."
