

Brother's Revenge, an exciting beat'em up game for iPhone, iPad and iPod

Published on 12/12/13

Tekko Games announces Brother's Revenge 1.1 for iPhone, iPad, and iPod touch. Inspired by arcade classics such as Streets of Rage and Double Dragon, Brothers Revenge offers addicting side-scrolling beat 'em up action. The quest to rescue his son takes Mike across several unique locations, including cities, castles, and more. Players can perform awesome combos and special attacks to defeat waves of tough enemies and bosses.

Montevideo, Uruguay - Following the success of Thief Job, an endless runner game that received more than 1.5 million downloads, Tekko Games is proud to announce the launch of their next game. Inspired by arcade classics such as Streets of Rage and Double Dragon, Brothers Revenge offers addicting side-scrolling beat 'em up action on all iOS platforms, including iPhone, iPad, and iPod touch.

In Brothers Revenge players can perform awesome combos and special attacks to defeat waves of tough enemies and bosses. The quest to rescue his son takes Mike across several unique locations, including cities, castles, and more. Along the way players can collect money to upgrade abilities and stats, making Mike into an even fiercer fighting machine.

Some of the main features include 3 difficulty levels (easy, medium, hard), allowing both casual players and veteran gamers to have fun. Also included are online leader-boards that let you compare your scores with friends, as well as several challenging achievements to unlock.

An updated version is set to release soon that will include even more bosses, levels, and special attacks to master and enjoy. Previously requiring a cost to play more than 3 levels, this new update will also make the full version of Brothers Revenge completely free to download.
