

Bubble Pic Frames -Unique App to Create Beautiful Floating Photo Collage

Published on 12/19/13

Independent developer Ajit Katti today introduces Bubble Pic Frames 1.0 for iPhone, iPad and iPod touch, a unique collage maker which lets users place multiple pictures in 'bubbles' on a stunning background. The bubbles move around and float, responding to gravity and touch. What differentiates this app from alternative collage apps, is it does not create just static collages, but the physics engine makes the picture bubbles dance around to the tune of gravity.

Bangalore, India - Independent developer Ajit Katti today is thrilled to announce the release of Bubble Pic Frames 1.0 for iPhone, iPad and iPod touch, a unique collage maker which lets users place multiple pictures in 'bubbles' on a stunning background. The bubbles move around and float, responding to gravity and touch. What differentiates this app from alternative collage apps, is it does not create just static collages, but the physics engine makes the picture bubbles dance around to the tune of gravity.
