Imatra, Finland - J.H. Digital Solutions is constantly updating its game repertoire offering to players exciting new adventures and stimulating experience. This time J.H. Digital Solutions is pleased to announce the launch of their new mobile arcade game, War in Space. War in Space is an addicting retro style game addressed to space and, of course, retro lovers. Its gameplay has already 20 challenging levels and the company, after the enthusiastic reception from players, is considering expanding them.

As Jari Huomo, CEO at J.H. Digital Solutions, explains "Our focus was to deliver a top-notch retro arcade game and the initial reviews prompt us to expand it further." So far the game is rated 4+ stars on iTunes and the reviews are triumphant: "love the retro style - a great time-killer and the retro feel is great," "Awesome - Addicting and Fun! Great game to pass time," and "Cool game - the game's got neat retro art style."

The aim of the game is to defend the planet against alien intruders in a cool retro environment. The concept is intriguing and the gameplay is fast-paced. And Mr. Huomo adds "Since I started J.H. Digital Solutions in my basement a few years ago, I have been launching exciting mobile games, educational and productivity apps continuously. War in Space aspires to keep players entertained and bring back retro memories".
