

Flash Reader 3.0 - The Popular iOS Speed Reading App Is Back

Published on 01/14/14

Didstopia today announces Flash Reader 3.0, an update to their popular speed reading application for iOS. Flash Reader uses a proven method of reading the text word by word, flashing the words without you having to move your eyes. This makes your brain remember and understand what you're reading, even though the text is going past your eyes at an incredible speed. This update brings a massive amount of new features and ways to import new articles and start reading like never before.

Kokkola, Finland - Didstopia today is proud to announce the release of Flash Reader 3.0 for iOS and it is available as a universal build for all iOS devices running iOS 7 or later.
