

MacX YouTube Downloader Updated with Enhanced Video Download Engine

Published on 01/31/14

MacXDVD Software is pleased to update its renowned MacX YouTube Downloader, a 100% free program to download YouTube videos on Mac platforms at fast speed. This video downloader is a perfect tool for online video enthusiasts to download videos and save them into personal collections. The upgrade has resolved the video downloading issues caused by certain changes of YouTube, and optimized the YouTube Video Download Engine for a faster and more efficient HD video downloading.

Chengdu, China - MacXDVD today updates its No.1 fast MacX YouTube Downloader. The upgrade comes with important fixes in YouTube downloading, helping users swiftly download FLV MP4 WebM YouTube online videos on OS X based iMac, MacBook Pro, MacBook Air, etc without error. What's more, the YouTube Video Download Engine is optimized to keep abreast with the breakthrough technology in YouTube HD videos, such that even the videos in 4K 4096p, HD 1080p/i can be downloaded for watching more easily.

The constant changes from YouTube lead to video downloading failures in many programs, driving a rising demand for an up-to-date YouTube downloader. With this in mind, MacXDVD renews its YouTube analysis module in the latest version of MacX YouTube Downloader, which can now circumvent all YouTube enjoying barriers and download blockbuster movies, TV shows, trailers, animation, music videos, etc of different formats like MP4, WebM, FLV without hassle.

The optimization of the built-in YouTube Video Download Engine is another noteworthy upgrade in the fresh version of the YouTube downloader for Mac. HD video is famous for its crisp image but usually comes with huge file size that exercises a great influence on the speed of video download. The Mac YouTube downloader is beefed up in an effort to ensure a smoother and faster performance in downloading the YouTube HD videos even in 4K 4096p, HD 1080p/i, HD 720p.

"We made several tests and finally got multiple acceleration of video downloading even for Full HD files!" Remarked Jack, CEO of MacXDVD Software. "Now, Mac users will never worry about the buffering problems and annoying advertising since downloading YouTube 1080p HD videos offline with our YouTube downloader for Mac becomes much easier and faster."

To better assist Mac users' YouTube video conversion, the advanced edition titled MacX Video Converter Pro is available to solve the YouTube format incompatibility issues. It makes a perfect combination with Mac YouTube downloader and video converter, able to download YouTube video to MP4, MOV, AVI, MKV, WMV, etc and transfer YouTube video to iPhone 5S/5C, iPad Air, iPad Mini with Retina, HTC One, Samsung Galaxy Note 3, and other 280 mobiles and devices with 32X faster speed and no quality degradation.

Pricing and Availability:

Despite of the fast download speed, high quality and easy-to-use features, MacX YouTube Downloader is totally free of charge with no adware, spyware, malware or viruses. It is fully compatible with Mac OS X 10.5, 10.6, 10.7, 10.8, and 10.9 (Mavericks).
