Independent software developer Reggie Ashworth, in collaboration with Sebastian Tischer, has announced Socializer 1.1, a brand-new social networking app redesigned for iOS 7. Socializer is your daily dose of social media in one hand. With Socializer you can post simultaneously to unlimited App.net, Twitter and Facebook accounts without ever leaving the app. Save your typed message as a draft and reuse it later whenever you wish, add or take photos from your iPhone you want to post, and more.

Anaheim, California - Independent software developer Reggie Ashworth, in collaboration with Sebastian Tischer, has announced Socializer 1.1, a brand-new social networking app redesigned for iOS 7. Socializer is your daily dose of social media in one hand. With Socializer you can post simultaneously to unlimited App.net, Twitter & Facebook (Pages & Timeline) accounts without ever leaving the app. Save your typed message as a draft and reuse it later whenever you wish, add or take photos from your iPhone you want to post, and more.

Multiple Services - Unlimited Accounts:

- * Add unlimited accounts of the following services:
- * Twitter
- * App.net
- * Facebook (Pages & Timeline)

Post:

- * Simultaneously post to Facebook, App.net and Twitter at the same time
- * No more need to open 3 different apps or go to a buggy web interface

Groups:

- * Create groups (like a smartfilter or an alias)
- * Only add the accounts or pages (Facebook) you want to see while posting
- * For example, make a group "work" and put all work accounts in to only see them and never post to the wrong account again

Drafts:

- * Save your typed message as a draft and reuse it later whenever you wish
- * Keep drafts if you like so that you will never lose a specific text again

Media:

- * Add or freshly take photos and add them to your post

Counter:

- * No more need to remember character limitations
- * Socializer will show you when you reach each limit
- * You will also see when your post is cut off due extensive use of characters

Socializer 1.1 features a completely new design for iOS 7, adds the ability to make a photo from within the app and add it to your post, implements new https communication method for Twitter, and also includes various bug fixes.

Language Support:

- * U.S. English and German with more to come

Device Requirements:

- * Compatible with iPhone, iPad, iPod touch. Optimized for iPhone 5.

prMac: Publish Once, Broadcast the World :: <http://prmac.com>

* Requires iOS 7.0 or later

* 4.2 MB

Pricing and Availability:

Socializer 1.1 is currently $1.99 or equivalent amount in other currencies and available worldwide exclusively through the App Store in the Social Networking category.
