Peccavi Technologies today is proud to introduce Schedule Ninja 1.0.1 for managing teams and groups. Free Mobile App Makes Communication, Event Management Easy and Fun. The easy to use and time-saving app is especially useful for bringing order to things like sports schedules, work projects, carpools, or clubs, and simply organizing day-to-day business, educational, or social activities. Works seamlessly with existing email and calendar applications, as well as contact lists.

Maryland, United States - Peccavi Technologies has released its new Schedule Ninja app, a free app for smartphones and tablets designed to solve the most vexing team management challenges. The app is now available for download on the Google Play store and the iTunes app store.

The easy to use and time-saving app is especially useful for bringing order to things like sports schedules, work projects, carpools, or clubs, and simply organizing day-to-day business, educational, or social activities.

The free team management mobile application works seamlessly with existing email and calendar applications, as well as contact lists. "Schedule Ninja allows users to keep track of their various groups in one application," said Steven M. Sprenger, a partner at Peccavi Technologies. "There's no need for users to keep a cluttered planner when this app keeps events and projects organized in the palm of their hand."

The all-in-one, cloud-based solution allows users to create unlimited groups; and inviting members can be done simply with an email address. They can sync events and messages with their personal email address and online calendar apps. In fact Schedule Ninja is compatible with multiple calendar platforms including iCal, MS Outlook, and Gmail.

The Schedule Ninja app also features multiple one-tap solutions. Users can send out broadcast alerts to all group members. They can call, email, or message any individual with a single click. They also can create directions and maps to event locations, all with the one tap.

This app was created with anyone with a busy calendar in mind - from moms to on-the-go professionals. It doesn't matter if you're tech savvy, Schedule Ninja will make maintaining your schedule a breeze.
