Klaipeda, Lithuania - A popular farm simulation game Farm Up celebrates the most beautiful holiday of the year with a brand new update. Love is in the air at Jane's farm. And the reason for it is not just the upcoming holiday.

Cute little Cupid himself flew over the Jane's estate. Unfortunately he can't perform his holiday duties because the poor fellow lost all of his arrows. He asks Jane to help him find as many arrows as possible and in return promises to give her wonderful presents. In this Valentine's Day update players are able to get all sorts of unique holiday goodies by the ways of completing quests and collecting items. In addition to this new mechanics almost every action on the farm can grant players with a magic heart, some of these hearts contain bronze keys that can unlock even greater rewards for the players who are lucky enough. New relationship-oriented quests, the presence of Cupid and holiday-themed decorations help set the right mood for the celebration of St.Valentine's Day. The event will run till the end of February. So make sure to participate and not to miss out any of the unique items that are available during the holiday.
