Chico, California - The Unexplainable Store(R) announces their most popular lifestyle app, Brainwaves - The Unexplainable Store(R) for iPhone, iPad and iPod touch. This app uses high quality brainwave entrainment recordings to help people make a great improvement in many respects. It is a good friend for those who are suffering from stress in one form or another in busy life and those who are eager to improve themselves in a simple way. Currently, it includes 80 brainwave sessions for spiritual, meditation, sleep, relaxation, positive life, brain training and so on.

The following is a brief introduction of part of recordings:

Recordings in Chakra Opening Package provide people with an excellent way to turn people into a spiritual powerhouse after a long stressful day.

Recordings in Meditation Package will lower people's brain frequencies and lead them into the Alpha and Theta states which is essential for meditation.

Energy recordings firstly lull people down to a Delta brainwave frequency to build up its energy reserves. Then they will take people back to Alpha Frequency where people will be productive and think critically. Listening to Energy recordings, people will feel they are vibrant and vigorous.

Weight Loss recording makes people become thinner and healthier by helping people have less hunger, less compulsive eating, less stress and more compulsion to exercise.

Inner Balance recording is excellent for emotional balance and it will help people throw away all fears and worries and make people enjoy peace that they have never experienced before.

Users may wonder how this app helps them make a great improvement. Well, Isochronic Tones are at the core of the app. Isochronic Tones are a powerful advancement in the field of brainwave entrainment. They can guide and entrain brain to the most optimal brainwave frequencies safely, gently and effectively. It has been scientifically proven that Isochronic Tones have a powerful effect on mental and physical health.

Besides, each recording within the app has a detailed introduction to tell users what this recording is used for and how to use this recording better. With the help of introduction, users will quickly and easily find the recording they really need! Regularly updated newsletters in Info offer users more brainwave knowledge and tips to help users make best use of the recordings.

In addition, Playlist feature is another highlight of the app. Users can put subject-related recordings into a playlist to listen to them together which will enhance the effect.

"So glad I found this app. It has worked wonders and it is quite easy to use. I have tried many sound apps and none has worked as good as this one. I use it daily with my kids when they go to sleep and at nap time. They fall asleep quickly and sleep comfortably, waking up refreshed and happy. I also have used it many times for myself when feeling very stressed. And just a few minutes of listening will change my entire feeling. I would definitely recommend this app to anyone!"One of the users said.
