Dallas, Texas - Muse Templates Pro Company today presented new Adobe Muse Templates with parallax scroll effects. Adobe Muse templates provide the unique design for websites that are created with Adobe Muse software. New Adobe Muse Templates include animated effects that move different elements of the website into different directions while scrolling through the pages. It is a great new way to engage with the website visitors and to make your websites even more dynamic and attractive. All the templates can be downloaded separately, or purchased all at once as part of Muse Templates Pack, which now includes 18 Adobe Muse Templates and 3 Muse Widgets in total.

"Adobe Muse Templates with parallax scrolling enables everyone to create interactive websites," said John Perry, Muse Templates Pro product manager. "We were working hard to introduce these amazing templates and we believe everyone will notice an extra effort that we put into them."

Introduced templates are called Midnight, Motion and Traveling. All of them include parallax scroll effects. Midnight Adobe Muse Template is perfect for websites that are related to nightlife, nightclubs, bars or entertainment in general. Motion template includes a lot of widgets, such as slideshows and tabbed panels. It is also full of beautiful colors and that makes it very lively and attractive. Traveling Adobe Muse Template is comprised of bright colors and gorgeous pictures. This template is great for holidays, traveling, adventure or nature websites.

All of the Adobe Muse templates are very easy to use. Only Adobe Muse software is required to open the template, edit it and then publish a website. Every element in the templates can be moved, removed, resized, recolored or modified in any other way.
