

Award winning Currency Converter for iPhone available at a 50% discount

Published on 08/06/09

Paolo Grifantini today announced that Currency Converter Pro 2.6 for iPhone and iPod Touch will be available at a 50% discount for a special sale period. Currency Converter Pro features more than 220 currencies, placing it as one of the top currency converter applications available for desktop and mobile platforms, and the only iPhone application of its kind to support all the world currencies.

Camerino, Italy - The award winning Currency Converter Pro application for iPhone and iPod Touch is available at a 50% discount for a special sale period, when buyers can get it for only 0.99$. Currency Converter Pro is the iPhone version of one of the top 10 downloaded OSX widgets at Apple.

It features more than 220 currencies, placing it at the top among all the others currency converter applications available for desktop and mobile platforms, and the only iPhone application of its kind to support all the world currencies. It is packed with a series of features, like advanced currencies list sorting (per country, per currency code and per currency name), exchange fees evaluation, precision control (from 0 to up to 5 decimal positions) and custom exchange rates control, making this application a perfect tool for both travellers and merchants.

All of this is presented with an highly efficient and easily customizable interface, allowing for easy cross conversion and inverse conversion. Also, some virtual currencies like Linden Dollar and Microsoft Xbox Points are featured, as well as many legacy currencies from all over the world. Currency Converter Pro was one of the winners of the 2008 iPhoneFootprint Excellence Award.
