Orlando, Florida - Kitty Code, LLC today is proud to announce promotional pricing for their award winning App, Hurricane Pro to kick off the 2014 hurricane season. Hurricane Pro, the professional level hurricane tracking software for the Apple iPhone, is starting off the 2014 hurricane season with promotional pricing. Available at $1.99 for a limited time, Hurricane Pro gives you the most up to date information on tropical systems around the world.

"With the Fourth of July holiday weekend close at hand and Tropical Storm Arthur threatening the North Carolina coastline, we wanted to get Hurricane Pro into the hands of those that need it most, without commercials, ads or interruptions." said Ilene Jones, CEO of Kitty Code, LLC.

Hurricane Pro is the standard in tracking applications that has spent the last six years helping people prepare for hurricane season and weather the storms with great tips, preparedness information and storm centered details. Hurricane Pro show where the storms are, in a beautifully detailed app that is quick and interactive.

Hurricane Pro Features:

- * Storm Center provides the information most relevant to you including the latest tropical outlook and currently active storms
- * Interactive Map lets you see a tropical system in detail including winds, location and pressure at every step along its path
- * Satellite Center gives you over 50 different animated views of areas around the world where tropical systems develop
- * Push Notifications keep you informed when there's new information you need to know. When a new storm forms, you'll be the first to know
- * Historic Storms Library provides tracks for tropical systems going back to 1851 in the Atlantic, 1949 in the East Pacific

Device Requirements:

- * iPhone, iPad, and iPod touch
- * Requires iOS 7.0 or later
- * 6.3 MB

Pricing and Availability:

For a limited time, Hurricane Pro 4.3 is $1.99 USD (or equivalent amount in other currencies) through July 6, 2014, and available worldwide exclusively through the App Store in the Weather category.
