ACTCurrency is a universal currency converter. It is your ultimate travel companion. ACTCurrency automatically retrieves daily exchange rates for 190 world currencies. You may add more currencies as needed. For these you will need to manually enter exchange rates.

ACTCurrency consistently ranks top 100 of the Travel category in many countries. It sets itself apart from the flock by:

- * Permanent two-way conversion
- * 190 currency with automatic exchange rate updates

ACTCurrency always performs currency conversion both ways. It answers both questions you may ask when faced with a price in a foreign currency:

"How much is this in my home currency?"

"How does the price back home convert to the foreign currency?"

Want to know how much 45 EUR is in USD? Just tap 4 and then 5. There is no step 3: ACTCurrency calculates the converted value as you type. How about 45 USD in EUR? It's the very same 2 taps. Indeed ACTCurrency always performs the conversion both ways.
