

Divine Fiat releases Take Two Redux Theme for Apple Keynote

Published on 08/20/09

Divine Fiat has announced Take Two Redux, their new theme for Apple's Keynote Presentation Software. Featuring a slate board clapper with easy-to-read white text on a jet-black background, Take Two presents images and ideas in a clean blockbuster environment. Designed for film, tv and video professionals alike, Take Two sports resizable media placeholders in four cinematic ratios, as well as fully customizable button and icon objects. It's ideal for a wide variety of presentations.

Jacksonville, Florida - Divine Fiat has announced Take Two Redux, their new theme for Apple's Keynote Presentation Software. Featuring a slate board clapper with easy-to-read white text on a jet-black background, Take Two presents images and ideas in a clean blockbuster environment, and ideal for a wide variety of presentations.

Designed with film, tv and video professionals in mind, Take Two sports resizable, custom designed media placeholders in four cinematic ratios (4:3, 16:9, 1.85:1, 2.35:1), as well as fully customizable button and icon objects. Among Take Two's most distinctive features are its overwhelming number of master slide layouts; just over a 100 in all, including 10 highly polished text layouts and 95 photo layouts available in 800, 1024, 1280, 1680, and 1920 theme sizes.

Feature Highlights:

- * Supports Keynote 4.0 - 5.0
- * Leverages Arial and Arial Bold for an easy-to-read, yet clean look
- * Supports 800, 1024, 1280, 1680 and 1920 Theme Sizes
- * 4:3, 16:9, 1.85:1, and 2.35:1 Cinematic Ratios
- * 10 Text Layouts
- * 95 Photo Layouts

"I love themes that have 'Apple Style' and Take Two certainly fits that description" said Phillip Gore, founder of Divine Fiat. "Before Keynote went HD, Take Two was one of my personal favorites and a best seller. I am so excited to finally offer a full HD version."

Every movie from Gone With the Wind to Star Wars began as an idea. If our Hollywood sized ideas are to become reality then they must be pitched effectively. That's where Take Two Redux comes center stage. It's the perfect theme in which to package and present concepts effectively and a perfect compliment to Apple's iLife Suite.

Minimum Requirements:

- * Mac OS X Version 10.4 Tiger or later (Leopard Compatible)
- * Keynote Version: 4.0 - 5.0 or later
- * 4.4 MB Hard Drive space
- * Arial and Arial Bold Font Required

Pricing and Availability:

Take Two Redux is available immediately for $26.00 (USD). Theme sets may be purchased for $46.80, a 10% savings over buying individually.

Divine Fiat:

<http://www.divinefiat.com>

Take Two Redux Theme:

<http://www.divinefiat.com/index.php?id=90>

prMac: Publish Once, Broadcast the World :: <http://prmac.com>

Located in sunny Jacksonville, Florida, Divine Fiat is a privately held company founded in 2005 by Phillip Gore. With a focus on innovation, Divine Fiat's mission is to produce creative themes for Apple's Keynote presentation software that are elegant and understated, simple but not simplistic, with superior customer service and support. Copyright (C) 2005-2009 Divine Fiat. All Rights Reserved. Apple, the Apple logo, and Keynote are registered trademarks of Apple Computer Inc. in the U.S. and/or other countries.

###

Phillip Gore
Founder

themes@divinefiat.com

Link To Article: <https://prmac.com/release-id-7030.htm>
