Not A Basement Studio is a team of passionate, twenty-something designers & developers based in sunny Vietnam - a country best known for its Pho, Coffee, and home to the almost-extinct "Flappy Bird". Our job is simple: build the very best products we could, with love. All of us want to capture unforgettable moments, some are better as collages, others as video clips, or at time just a single photo is more than enough to share with friends. That's why we've built Fuzel, a suite of fun, simple photo apps catered for different moments in your life. All Material and Software (C) Copyright 2014 Not A Basement Studio. All Rights Reserved.
