

WaveMachine Labs announce a Drumagog 5 sale now through the end of 2014

Published on 10/09/14

WaveMachine Labs, Inc. has announced a sale on Drumagog 5, their real-time drum replacing plug-in for Mac and Windows. Drumagog offers all the secret weapons top mix engineers use to give hit records polish and power. It is this exclusive combination of replacement and enhancement tools that has made Drumagog the industry standard for more than a decade. Drumagog 5 is offered in VST, AU, and AAX/RTAS plug-in formats, and in both 64 and 32-bit editions. This sale will run through the end of 2014.

Chicago, Illinois - WaveMachine Labs has announced a sale on Drumagog 5, their real-time drum replacing plug-in for Mac and Windows. This sale will run through the end of 2014. Both the Platinum and Pro editions of Drumagog are on sale: Drumagog 5 Platinum (which is normally $379 USD) is now $199 USD, while Drumagog 5 Pro (normally $289 USD) is only $99 USD. This sale is available anywhere Drumagog is sold, including both retail stores and online, and is good through December 31, 2014.

Current Drumagog users can upgrade for less, as all upgrades are also on sale. Specific information on upgrading is available through the Drumagog web site; existing users should log into their accounts to find their updated upgrade pricing.

Drumagog is a software plug-in which replaces acoustic drum tracks with your choice of other samples. But Drumagog also offers the "secret weapons" top mix engineers use to give hit records polish and power. It is this exclusive combination of replacement and enhancement tools that has made Drumagog the industry standard for more than a decade.

Drumagog 5 is available for both Mac OS X and Windows systems in VST, AU, and AAX/RTAS plug-in formats, and in both 64 and 32-bit editions.
