

Any DVD Cloner Platinum Released V1.3.2- Support More Output Devices

Published on 01/13/15

DVDSmith Inc. upgraded Any DVD Cloner Platinum to new version 1.3.2 to support more popular output devices, such as iPhone 6, Samsung Galaxy Note 4, Nexus 6, TVs and more. DVD Cloner Platinum is one of the best DVD Cloner and DVD ripper programs in the market. The program is able to backup encrypted movie DVDs to blank DVD, ISO File and DVD folder, and convert them to video files in multi-formats for playback on various devices. The latest version also added a special TV list in output device list.

Beijing, China - DVDSmith Inc., one of the most up-to-date multimedia software pioneers, updated its mainstream product Any DVD Cloner Platinum to new version 1.3.2 by adding new profiles for new Apple iPhone 6 on December 31st, 2014. In addition, Any DVD Cloner Platinum 1.3.2 has been made supportive for almost all other attention-grabbing portable devices, such as Samsung Galaxy Note 4, Google Nexus 6, and so on. The latest version 1.3.2 also added a special TV list in output device list.

Many a new device gathers together recently, like the 4.7-inch iPhone 6 and the 5.7-inch Samsung Galaxy Note 4, which both are magnates in the smartphone market around the world. And those popular devices all hunt for bigger than bigger widescreen, without exception, to provide better visual experience. However, not all movies saved on users' computers and older phones are playable on such new devices for different screen ratios or resolutions. Take Apple iPhone as example, iPhone 6 has a resolution of 1334 x 750, while the previous iPhone 5S's resolution is 1136 x 640. DVDSmith Inc. always tries its best to make sure its flagship software - Any DVD Cloner Platinum is the most up-to-minute.

In order to meet users' needs of enjoying movies on bigger HDTV, Any DVD Cloner Platinum 1.3.2 added a TV output list separately. Here are Samsung TV, LG TV and other popular TV devices to choose. DVD Cloner Platinum is one of the best DVD Cloner and DVD ripper programs in the market. Embedded with advanced decryption technology, the program is able to backup encrypted movie DVDs to blank DVD, ISO File and DVD folder, and convert them to video files in multi-formats, like MP4 and M4V, for playback on various devices.
