

Ticker 1.0 for iOS now available - Sample-accurate metronome + beatmatch

Published on 02/26/15

Toronto based rCreativ announces Ticker 1.0, a sample-accurate metronome for iPhone, iPad and iPod touch. Ticker is a simple but powerful metronome that helps you make music more precisely. It can tick from 15 to 400 BPM, beatmatch with two taps, display classical tempo markings, play in the background or while the device is locked / asleep, and save tempo presets. The goal of Ticker was to provide simple robust time-keeping functionality for the iOS platform without sacrificing simplicity.

Toronto, Canada - rCreativ is proud to announce the release of Ticker 1.0, a sample-accurate metronome for iPhone, iPad and iPod touch devices. Do you want to take your musicianship to the next level? To make music more precisely without fiddling with knobs and circular dials? Now, there is an app that can help you keep time without thinking.
