Say hello ...

Now that you know about elixir's 'little sale,' we'd like to introduce you to their latest RapidWeaver themes - Pinwheel, Potion and Mini.

Their Pinwheel theme is a great design for developing a business webpage, portfolio and more. It has a very polished look and feel, and is easily customized to fit your needs.

Potion and Mini are both geared toward bloggers and those looking to create more personal sites, portfolios, and such. As always though, elixir's themes are highly customizable and the type of site you create is only limited by your imagination!

All three of these new themes are included in the aforementioned Ultimate Bundle sale as well! There is a lot to say about each theme. All of the details are located on their individual product pages, along with live site previews and walk-thru videos. Check them all out and see which one fits your style, tastes and project.
