

File Transfer App Deliver at 50% off on BitsDuJour: April 6

Published on 04/06/15

Zevrix Solutions announces that its file transfer solution Deliver is available at 50% off on the software discount website BitsDuJour on April 6 only. Deliver supports FTP, SFTP, Amazon S3, WebDAV and other remote and local services, and offers automatic email notifications, delivery to multiple destinations, file encryption and compression, and other powerful capabilities. The software also lets users send output files and collected jobs to service providers directly from Adobe InDesign.

Toronto (ON) Canada - Zevrix Solutions today announces that its file transfer solution, Deliver is available at 50% off the software discount website BitsDuJour on April 6 only. Deliver lets users send files over the Internet and local networks with automatic variable email notifications, file compression, automatic PDF creation and other powerful capabilities. It supports FTP, Amazon S3, Google Storage, WebDAV, AFP and other remote and local services. The promo lets users save $10 on each copy of the app.

"Deliver gives plenty to like," writes Natalia Nowak on Mac360.com. "It's a secure document delivery system with tracking built in, and straightforward and comprehensive user interface."

Deliver simplifies and automates file delivery operations of ad agencies, printers, audio recording studios, video producers and legal offices worldwide. Users only need to drop their files on the program's icon and they will be delivered automatically to the desired destinations with customizable e-mail confirmations issued upon delivery. Recipients can download the file using a link inserted automatically into the notification e-mail.

Deliver offers the following key features:

- * Support for all major remote and local services
- * Automatic email notifications based on powerful variable templates
- * Hyperlink to file or enclosing folder in notification email
- * Automatic zip and disk image compression
- * Encrypt disk images with passwords
- * Create lo-res PDF on the fly and attach to email
- * Detailed history of all deliveries

Pricing and Availability:

Deliver can be purchased from BitsDuJour at 50% off for $9.97 on April 6 only. Trial version is also available for download. Deliver requires Mac OS X 10.5-10.10.
