North Richland Hills, Texas - Agile Tortoise today announces the release of Apple Watch support for two of its popular apps, Drafts and Tally.

Drafts for Apple Watch:

Drafts is a quick capture note taking focused on making it easy to quickly jot down notes and ideas by always launching ready to type. Extending this focus to the Apple Watch was a natural fit for the app. With the release of version 4.2 (available now), Drafts is ready for the Apple Watch with an app featuring:

- * Capture to new drafts with dictation
- * Browse and view full text of drafts in your inbox.
- * Archive and delete drafts.
- * Append and prepend text to drafts in your inbox with dictation.

Drafts is available now exclusively on the App Store for $9.99. Apple Watch support is a free update for existing customers.

Tally for Apple Watch:

Tally is a quick counting app designed to keep up with simple counts throughout the day. Tally is commonly used for game scoring, attendance and nutritional/habit tracking and being able to increment counters without having to pull your iPhone out of your pocket made it a perfect fit for the Apple Watch. With the release of version 2.1 (available now), Tally is ready for the Apple Watch with an app featuring:

- * Browse, select existing tallies or create new ones.
- * Increment, decrement or reset tally counts.

Tally is available now exclusively on the App Store. Tally is free to download and use with up to two tallies. Unlimited tallies and a dark theme can be unlocked with a one time $1.99 in-app purchase. For more information, press kits and app previews, visit our website.
