Sakiai, Lithuania - Theme Inn, a graphic design company that specializes in creating high-quality templates, today is proud to announce the release of Bundle for MS Office 3.0, an update to their popular productivity application for OS X. Theme Inn has again expanded its selection of templates for MS Office users. This new update adds 55 fresh designs for MS Word for Mac.

In total, Bundle for MS Office contains 5 collections of elegant and easily-customizable designs. The Templates for MS Word set now supplies a kit of 1,421 easy-to-use templates for creating business and personal documents with Word. It provides an inclusive variety of designs, from letters and brochures to greeting cards and books. All templates are available in US and international page sizes.

The second high-quality pack, Templates for MS Excel, now offers 160 diverse and functional templates for Excel. They make daily chores a lot more manageable, whether used for business or personal needs such as vacation planning. Users can personalize the templates to their requirements: create tables, make calculations, draw diagrams, and insert images. Excel templates are also available in US and international page sizes.

The Templates for MS PowerPoint set incorporates 160 first-class designs for PowerPoint presentations. More than just good-looking backgrounds, these templates consist of up to 20 individual master slides. This allows users to choose the best layout for their information, whether it is almost entirely made up of bullet points, consists of a mix of text and illustrations, or presents multiple graphs and tables.

Templates Pro for MS Word is a collection of 40 template lines, designed to give an outstanding unified, design to all documents representing a user's company. With Templates Pro for MS Word, users can turn their documents into part of a successful advertising campaign.

The Motion Themes set is created for exclusive PowerPoint presentations. The pack includes 20 themes, each providing 14 master slides, which allow users to choose the ideal layout for their ideas, proposals, and solutions.
