

FJM Technology Consultants, LLC Announces Launch of Apocalypse Traffic

Published on 06/24/15

It's 2030 and a pandemic has wiped out most of the world. The people that remain are engaging in high speed battles on the roads to see who will be the last man standing. That's the concept behind the more than exciting new mobile game "Apocalypse Traffic" from FJM Technology Consultants, LLC. Featuring addictive game play, fast action and eye popping graphics that draws players in, it's no surprise Apocalypse Traffic is off to a fast and furious start. Players couldn't be happier.

Pembroke Pines, Florida - It's the end of the world, the people are mean and the cars are fast and deadly. Enter Apocalypse Traffic, a recent mobile game release from FJM Technology Consultants, LLC, that paints the picture of a dark, exciting future in an iOS & Android game that may be one of the standout releases of the year. Addictive game play, fast action and eye popping graphics that draws players in. It's no surprise Apocalypse Traffic is off to a fast and furious start.

"Our goal of Apocalypse Traffic was not to only create an entertaining game, but one that submerges you into the apocalyptic world," commented Frank J. Mitropoulos, Ph.D, president of FJM Technology Consultants, LLC. "In a challenging market, what makes a game stand out from the crowd? We believe it's dedication to quality, captivating gameplay and a commitment to excellence. Apocalypse Traffic was created on these values."

According to Mitropoulos, the game has many features that help it stand out from the pack. Some highlights include fast paced action packed gameplay; seven different cars for players to choose from; three locations each with their own distinct feel; the ability to progressively improve a car's engine, steering and brakes; compare scores and compete against friends; and three different fun game modes.

The FJM Technology Consultants, LLC team anticipate the unique feel of the Multiplatform game helping it become a big success.

Mitropoulos remarked, "We are elated to combine the fast paced nature of a racing game with a dilapidated apocalyptic world. It was compelling to design and is gratifying to be able to present the game."
