California based AAF Inc. today introduces Freedomizer 1.0 for iOS, their new app to add funny over-the-top patriotic graphics to your photos. Just in time for the celebration of Independence Day, Freedomizer offers individuals an opportunity to express themselves patriotically by altering photos with slogans and graphics. The app also offers users a portal to the Freedomizer merchandise store, where many of the app graphics can be made into tee shirts.

Escondido, California - Just in time for the celebration of Independence Day, AAF Inc. today is proud to announce the release of Freedomizer 1.0 for iOS, their new app to add funny over-the-top patriotic graphics to your photos. Freedomizer offers individuals an opportunity to express themselves patriotically by altering photos with slogans and graphics. The app also offers users a portal to the Freedomizer merchandise store, where many of the app graphics can be made into tee shirts.

Just like other image altering apps, Freedomizer allows users to customize their photos with patriotic and military related imagery. The app was developed by United States Marine Corps veterans to complement their apparel website. The apparel company employs veterans and donates a portion of the proceeds to veteran organizations such as Disabled American Veterans and the Wounded Warrior Project.

Freedomizer app is the creation of AAF Inc., a virtual storefront for patriotic apparel. "Our company is forever linked to all the veterans that have served in the United States military. We are focused on developing exciting content that vets and other military personnel can relate to," said the company founder Shawn Wylde. "All of our products are designed for anyone who loves America as much as we do, and we proudly employ our veterans."
