

Subtitles Viewer PRO - Great news for Hearing Impaired

Published on 07/08/15

Interactive Coconut today announces Subtitles Viewer 2.0, an update to their movie utility for iOS. Use Subtitles Viewer PRO to download subtitles/captions and then view them on your iPhone/iPad synchronized with TV or movies at home or at the cinema. The pro version gives you unlimited downloads of subtitles from the vast database of OpenSubtitles. Version 2.0 is now translated into over 14 languages, and has many new features including support for uploading your own subtitles via Dropbox.

Melbourne, Australia - Interactive Coconut today is proud to announce the release of Subtitles Viewer 2.0, an update to their movie utility for iPhone, iPad and iPod touch. Ever been to the movies in a foreign country and it's dubbed in the local language? Frustrating! Or how about the hearing impaired? A cinema experience can be impossible when no captioning is available. Subtitles Viewer PRO works to solve this problem.

Subtitles Viewer PRO is the pro version of Subtitles Viewer, and allows unlimited downloads of subtitles/captions. Users can then view subtitles on their iOS device synchronized with television or movies at home, or at the cinema. Subtitles Viewer PRO make use of the vast database of subtitles at OpenSubtitles.org, with subtitles available for downloading in over 20 languages.

Subtitles Viewer is ideal for a number of situations, for example:

- * Travelling/living abroad - the cinema has audio in another language, and there are no subtitles
- * The hearing impaired can enjoy going to the cinema
- * Resolving arguments at home about which language the subtitles should be in

"I'm always really pleased to see an app that serves the handicapped, and Subtitles Viewer makes a strong contribution to this category of iOS owner." commented Mel Martin of TUAW. "It's also useful for people struggling with a new language and want to view movies and TV in their native language."

Version 2.0 of Subtitles Viewer/Subtitles Viewer PRO is now localized into 14 languages and has a huge number of improvements, including:

- * New dark design
- * New player design
- * New player control - slider to skip to time-code (much requested)
- * New player control - eye to show subtitles in red
- * New functionality to upload subtitles via Dropbox
- * Added movie posters to search results
- * Added television options(season, episode) to search page

Since its launch, Subtitles Viewer has generated multiple 5-star reviews from impressed users who have commented that the app is a "must have", "really improves my life", and is "a life saver."

Device Requirements:

- * iPhone, iPad, and iPod touch
- * Requires iOS 7 or later
- * 14 MB

Pricing and Availability:

Subtitles Viewer PRO 2.0 is $9.99 USD (or equivalent amount in other currencies) and available worldwide exclusively through the App Store in the Utilities category.
