Available in three languages, iDickens: Ghost Stories includes 3 mystery tales, offering the ultimate interactive experience. This book app features well-known authors of classical novels in a singular enhanced experience. Welcome to a new iClassics: a fascinating and terrifying roller coaster, a new way of experiencing classical literature.

Barcelona, Spain - iClassics Productions S.L, the Spanish developer and global reference in apps, today is releasing the second author of its literary classics collection. 'iDickens: Ghost stories' has been launched exclusively for iOS devices (the 3 iP's: iPhone, iPad and iPod) and is available in three languages (English, Spanish and French).

This book app introduces a new author to the iClassics Collection. Software improvements, a brand new illustrator and 3 more stories to continue the legacy of the best interactive books collection of the App Store. Moreover, the startup celebrates this important release with a special promotional price for all their premium apps, which are available for $1,99 for a limited period of time.

iClassics is much more than an electronic book, but a new way of enjoying literature through an ultimate interactive experience that features well-known authors of classical novels in a singular enhanced experience. After the success of iPoe Collection, which already has 3 volumes, about a thousand downloads and a 5 star rating from users, the startup has made a strategic move by including a new and renowned author.

'iDickens: Ghost stories' includes 3 mystery tales: Christmas Ghosts, A Madman's Manuscript and The Ivy Green. The outstanding artwork from Cesar Samaniego and a troubling original soundtrack by Miquel Tejada will lead your imagination to the most sordid and cruel aspects of human psychology. Welcome to a new iClassics: a fascinating and terrifying roller coaster, a new way of experiencing classical literature.
