Macgo Blu-ray Player is for people who are really into Blu-ray, which has gained so much popularity among people who prefer high definition visual effect.

Hong Kong - In a twinkling of an eye September is here, which means it's time to go back to school again. At this very special moment, Macgo has launched a big sale promotion for all the students to celebrate their new school year. Macgo Back-to-School Promotion 2015, which is in accordance with Apple's latest promotion, is delivering the company's best work - Macgo Blu-ray Player to people who are really into Blu-ray, which has gained so much popularity among people who prefer high definition visual effect.

Macgo Back-to-School Promotion 2015 has two special offers. The first one is for Blu-ray fans, they can enjoy an unique discount - 33% off of Macgo's best seller Macgo Blu-ray Player for Mac & Windows, and a 54% OFF discount of Macgo Blu-ray Player Suite (Including Mac Blu-ray Player and Windows Blu-ray Player). The second offer is 50% Educational Discount for college students and faculty on LinkedIn. Users need to share this promotion on their LinkedIn and send their LinkedIn page, computer system and snapshot of the share to Macgo. They can get the 50% coupon via e-mail as long as the info they sent were reviewed.

In recent years, Macgo always keeps up with the tech trend to improve itself. As world's first Blu-ray player software for Apple Mac in the industry, Macgo Blu-ray Player can play Blu-ray Disc, Blu-ray Menu, Blu-ray ISO files, and BDMV folder, also support other media formats for free, like .MP4, .MOV, .AVI, and .FLV, etc. Now it can play 4K UHD videos along with the DTS 5.1 stereo output to provide better than ever audio-visual effects. Moreover, its unique BluFast MX technology makes hardware acceleration function better by lowering Mac's CPU usage by around 20%~50% during the playback, which can certainly make Blu-ray and other video formats' playback is smoother than ever. It also supports external subtitle after the latest few upgrades.
