

Spot the Diff - A brand new game available now on both Apple and Android

Published on 10/26/15

UK based Dazzler Games introduces Spot The Diff 1.0.0, a brand new spot the difference game for iOS and Android devices. Spot the Diff takes players on a journey around the world with four image packs in the first release; New York, London, Water and Attractions. Within each pack there are 20 levels with six differences to find in each one. The six differences vary in difficulty and while one level could be completed within a respectable time frame, other levels are fiendishly challenging.

London, United Kingdom - Spot the Diff is a brand new spot the difference game bought to you by independent developer, Dazzler Games, well known for the hit game; World of Hidden Objects. Although an already popular genre, this spot the difference game builds on Dazzler Games' signature clean and modern interface with a fresh and easy to use design.

Using stunning HD photography to captivate the imagination, Spot the Diff takes players' on a journey around the world with four image packs in the first release; New York, London, Water and Attractions. Within each pack there are 20 levels with six differences to find in each one.

The six differences vary in difficulty and whilst one level could be completed within a respectable time frame earning one or two stars, other levels are fiendishly challenging, keeping the player motivated and on a quest to achieve the coveted three stars.

Three stars can only be achieved by completing the level within a short timeframe, having not used the hint button and with no incorrect guesses. The Holy Grail is to achieve three stars on all 20 levels in each pack.
