Meadville, Pennsylvania - Nuclear Nova Software today announces the release of Total Disc Golf, a free sequel to the previous hit Disc Golf 3D. Welcome to Total Disc Golf, the top disc golfing game and simulator for the Mac, iPhone, iPad, and iPod touch. Total Disc Golf is sure to keep you entertained over hundreds of holes across five distinct landscapes. Play the famous Birdie Links club for free while starting your career as a professional disc golfer, then unlock all of the prestigious tournaments and courses with in-game coins. Total Disc Golf is simple enough to pick up and play but deep enough to keep you coming back over and over again.

Features include

- * Stunning 3D graphics - Nuclear Nova's third generation graphics engine with all-new character models and fresh textures/artwork
- * Realistic disc physics - Beginners will enjoy the simple three-touch shot system, while avid disc golfers will be able to shape every shot using different discs just like they would expect in real life
- * Unique courses - Four unique courses all from different places around the world. These aren't just simple re-skins, each area has it's own play style and what works well on one course may not work well on another
- * Online Multiplayer - Challenge your friends to turn based multiplayer matches through Game Center
- * Customizable characters - Level up your character's golfing skills while managing each avatar's wardrobe and physical appearance
- * Career mode - Work your way up from the beginner to amateur circuit, then finally to the pro tour by winning various qualifiers and tournaments
- * Local Multiplayer - Challenge up to three of your friends and play at the same time, stroke and match play supported
- * Purchase custom discs, helpers, music, and more using virtual coins bought with in-app purchase
- * High replay value - Each hole has 64 unique configurations based on different tees, basket locations, and environmental difficulty
- * Custom soundtrack made specifically for Total Disc Golf
- * Achievements tracked along with course records, stored both locally and online with Game Center

System Requirements:

- * Mac OS 10.8
