

Marquee Mash word game released for iPhone and iPad

Published on 12/21/15

California based TamerZone LLC today introduces Marquee Mash 1.0, a new word game for iPhone and iPad devices. Suitable for all ages, Marquee Mash is aimed at word lovers looking for something a little different, especially when they only have time for a quick puzzle break. Players remove letters from signs to answer crossword-style clues. Each puzzle consists of a sign displaying a movie title or musical act, a clue, and a number of blank spaces for discarded letters.

Cupertino, California - TamerZone LLC today is pleased to announce the release of Marquee Mash 1.0, a new word game for iPhone and iPad devices. In Marquee Mash, players remove letters from signs to answer crossword-style clues. It is aimed at word lovers looking for something a little different, especially when they only have time for a quick puzzle break.

In Marquee Mash, each puzzle consists of a sign displaying a movie title or musical act, a clue, and a number of blank spaces for discarded letters. The challenge is to remove letters from the sign to reveal the answer to the clue. When a puzzle is solved, the player earns a gold coin for each discarded letter and can proceed to the next puzzle.

"I love crossword puzzles, but I often don't have time for a whole grid," said Nabil Tamer, the game's developer. "Marquee Mash lets players get a quick wordplay fix in their spare moments. Plus, it is designed for phone screens that are too small for a full crossword."

Difficulty ranges from simple to tricky. Gold coins can be exchanged for hints that remove a letter or restore a letter that was incorrectly removed. More gold coins can be bought via in-app purchase.
