Bellevue, WA - Eltima Software, global software Development Company, today released SyncMate version 2.4. The New SyncMate 2.4 enables all Mac users to synchronize Mac with Windows PC, Sony PlayStation(R) Portable (PSP) and USB flash drives, as well as with other supported devices (Windows Mobile devices, Nokia phones, other Macs, online storage and Google account).

SyncMate is offered at two versions, Free and Expert, and provides all users with even more synchronization possibilities than before. SyncMate Free Edition enables you to sync Address Book and iCal entries in your Mac with their analogues in supported devices and back up these data to Online Storage Account. Google Contacts and Google Calendar synchronization is also available.

Additionally to sync features, SyncMate Free Edition provides you with opportunity to read your SMS right from Mac OS X computer, share Internet between Mac and Windows Mobile devices and visually analyze detailed information of the Windows Mobile devices connected (battery state or memory usage).

SyncMate Expert Edition provides all users with a full access to all synchronization features. Sync iTunes & Video, iPhoto, Safari and Firefox Bookmarks, Entourage and mail Notes, ToDo's, Mail and even separate folders between your Mac and Windows Mobile devices, create, send or delete SMS right on your Mac computer. With Expert Edition all users can install any .cab files to Windows Mobile devices right from Mac computer.

SyncMate Expert enables all Mac users to sync To Do's, Safari bookmarks, Entourage and Mail notes and separate folders between two or more Mac computers. Since version 2.4, SyncMate supports Mac and Windows PC synchronization: Contacts, Calendar, ToDo's, Mail and Entourage Notes sync.

Synchronization with PSP lets you transfer and update Address Book contacts, Calendar, iTunes and iPhoto in your handheld game console in accordance with your Mac. Moreover, you can backup PSP data to your Mac. SyncMate 2.4 allows syncing music, images and even separate folders between your Mac and USB flash drives. And of course you can backup your USB drive data to Mac.

With SyncMate Expert all Mac users can easily analyze Nokia S40 devices Calls history directly on Mac computer. You can also back up ToDo's, Safari Bookmarks, Entourage and Mail notes to your Online Storage Account with Expert. And of course all features of SyncMate Free Edition are available at Expert Edition.

SyncMate installation is very easy. There is no need to unlock device in order to install SyncMate. Mac can be connected to Windows Mobile device via USB, Wi-Fi or Bluetooth, Mac to Nokia connection is available via Bluetooth, you can sync your Mac with another Mac via Ethernet, Mac with Windows PC via Wi-Fi or Ethernet and PSP synchronization is possible via USB cable.
