

Doodletime Gets Your Creative Juices Flowing Each Morning

Published on 05/17/16

Qrayon announces Doodletime 1.0, their creative app for iOS devices. Doodletime is a fun way to get your creative juices flowing. Each time players start the App, they get a random word (like "banana") and 60 seconds to doodle it. But instead of just another static picture, the result is a neat 6-second timelapse video that can be shared on Vine, YouTube, or anywhere the player would like. Doodletime provides a simple and non-intimidating sandbox to create fun little pieces 60 seconds at a time.

Seattle, Washington - Qrayon is proud to announce the release of Doodletime 1.0, their creative app for iPhone, iPad, and iPod touch devices. Doodletime is a fun way to get a payer's creative juices flowing. Each time a player starts the App, they get a random word (like "banana") and 60 seconds to doodle it. But instead of just another static picture, the result is a neat 6-second timelapse video that can be shared on Vine, YouTube, or anywhere the player likes.

Features:

- * Vector ink canvas built on the Inkflow Engine
- * Random words prompts each morning
- * 60 seconds to sketch a video
- * Converted to a 6 second time-lapse
- * Videos can be shared on Facebook, YouTube, Vine, Vimeo and other social media

Creativity Loves Constraint

Doodletime provides a simple and non-intimidating sandbox to create fun little pieces 60 seconds at a time. But you can explore a whole range of different expressions within those constraints. Try different styles, or give yourself extra challenges (draw with your non-dominant hand, or upside down, or with just your pinkie). Use Doodletime as part of your own workflow. Do a couple doodles each morning to warm up your brain. Doodle after boring meetings. Keep them as a private art journal, or build a YouTube following around them.

Device Requirements:

- * iPhone, iPad, and iPod touch
- * Requires iOS 7.0 or later
- * 2.7 MB

Pricing and Availability:

Doodletime 1.0 is free, and is available worldwide exclusively through the App Store in the Photo and Video category.
