New York, NY - Future Media Concepts (FMC), the premier authorized digital media training organization for postproduction, broadcast, and content creators, announced that they are working alongside Pearson VUE(R) for comprehensive test delivery. Pearson VUE is the global leader in computer-based testing for information technology, academic, government and professional testing programs. Testing is offered exclusively through FMC Washington, D.C. using the Pearson VUE Authorized Test Center network of more than 5,000 sites in 165 countries. Offering control and flexibility, Pearson VUE's real-time testing system allows FMC to administer a variety of their Adobe(R) Certification examinations through a centralized scheduling system. Pearson VUE also provides FMC with instantaneous access to reporting and tracking, alongside 24-hour technical support.

"Pearson VUE's centralized testing creates a flexible and convenient way to administer our Adobe certification courses. Our students can access its real-time, web-based registration, while our instructors are able to easily access the software application to adjust test hours, test availability and additional management needs," said Jeff Rothberg, president and co-founder, FMC. "We look forward to working with Pearson VUE to continue providing a comprehensive course experience from beginning to end."

FMC Washington D.C. is currently offering Pearson VUE certification testing for a variety of Adobe software, including: After Effects(R), Illustrator(R), Photoshop(R), Premiere Pro(R) and After Effects(R). For a full list of available Adobe tests using Pearson VUE testing, please contact Future Media Concepts directly at (202) 429-9700 or visit FMC online.
