London, United Kingdom - AllSharp Corporation Ltd. is pleased to announce the release of BagAPP 1.2, an important update to their popular travel app developed for iPhone, iPad, and iPod touch devices. BagAPP is the first App allowing anyone hands free travel: a service to search, choose and reserve the most convenient luggage storage service right when and where they need it. Available on the App Store, Google Play Store and via its own website, BagAPP is completely Free to download. The service is now open in Berlin, Prague, Rome and Milan. Many more cities will follow!

With BagAPP it is possible to book whenever, up to a few minutes before reaching the bag storage: just one click to search the nearest deposit around the current location or along the planned itinerary. There's No Need to Register: log in through Facebook or G+ profile. No advance payment is required, and booking cancellation can be done up to an hour before the date/time reserved.

Compare prices, offers and book the deposit in two clicks. Travellers can also Save time via a built-in pre-check in feature. Being able to visit a city, go shopping or travelling for business hands free, without having to drag around any weight, but still being able to access the personal effects when and where needed. With BagAPP it's now possible.

In this era of do-it-yourself journeys, city breaks and short stays, BagAPP allows travellers to fully enjoy each moment of the trip by getting rid of the burden of carrying around the suitcase by depositing it in a nearby business premise or luggage deposit of their choice. This is possible thanks to a mobile and web application, the most used and valued technology for modern travellers.

Joining the BagAPP network is free for business premises and commercial facilities with a bag storage facility. Just a web sign in is needed to get access to a powerful cloud-based backoffice, that gives full control over prices, luggage check-in / check-out and many other features, such as statistics and deposit capacity. Anyone can check out their revenue potential on the website depending on the single locations.

BagAPP's business model discloses a completely new and exclusive market service allowing people to experience the trip, free from any kind of weight. Downloading BagAPP means start living hands free travel experience.
