

Unleash your music power by Everlisten++

Published on 09/15/16

Independent developer, Tomoyoshi Natsui today introduces Everlisten++ 1.0, a music listening app for iPhone, iPad and iPod touch devices. With Everlisten++, you can listen to the main portion of a song track, one after another. This app plays a song from the Start Position, and playing it for a set Playback Duration. Furthermore, you can control the playback speed and its pitch freely, so how much to unleash the power of the music depends on you.

Tokyo, Japan - Indie developer, Tomoyoshi Natsui today is proud to announce the release of Everlisten++ 1.0, a music listening app developed for iPhone, iPad and iPod touch devices. Are you making the best of your music files? Using Everlisten, you can listen to the main portion of a song track, one after another.

It's usage is up to you. At first, let's create a playlist. You can add the music from your iTunes library to the playlist. This application plays a music from the "Start Position", and it plays a music for "Playback Duration". For example, if you made a setup playback 30 seconds respectively, you can listen to 100 musics in 50 minutes of commuting time. And you may discover a new charm which you have never known in many musics!

Furthermore, you can experience new 'Parameter' function at Everlisten++. You can control the playback speed and its pitch freely, so how much to unleash the power of the music depends on you. Your favorite music may remind you the thought which only you felt. Now, let's recover you-likeness.

* Information: After installation of this application, it has some restrictions as below. If you want to unlock it, please tap 'Unlock' at Playlist view:

1. You can create only one playlist
2. You can register only 10 musics to the playlist

Device Requirements:

- * iPhone, iPad, and iPod touch
- * Requires iOS 8.0 or later
- * 8.7 MB

Pricing and Availability:

Everlisten++ 1.0 is Free and available worldwide exclusively through the App Store in the Music category.
