East Bend, North Carolina - Chomp Chomp Apps today is pleased to announce the release of Square Borne Farm 1.0, their new challenging physics puzzle adventure developed for iOS and Android devices. Square Borne Farm uses unique game mechanics to provide a fun and immersive experience. Choose from a variety of cute characters to play through over 100 fun packed levels. In each level, the key is to use the farm animals and a variety of platform types to reach the goal. Collecting game items will allow more characters and levels to be unlocked.

A couple of unique game mechanics include tilting the device to swing platforms and tapping breakable platforms to make them crumble. Some of these fun game mechanics are available throughout the interactive menus. The level editor allows players to create their own levels that they can then send to the developers to be added in the game for everyone in the world to play. Players can compete with their friends through leaderboards and achievements.

Features:

- * 100+ fun and challenging levels
- * 50+ missions
- * 20+ cute characters

Located in North Carolina, Chomp Chomp Apps was founded in 2012 by Amanda Linn. Our first game, Square Borne, became available in 2012 on Google Play, Amazon, and the App Store. After receiving a lot of great feedback from fans all over the world, we went about creating another game in the series called Square Borne Farm which is now available on both Google Play and the App Store. Our goal is to create original family friendly games that are fun for all ages. All Material and Software (C) Copyright 2012-2016 Chomp Chomp Apps. All Rights Reserved.
