Find out the truth:

An unexpected breakdown of the Tarani's control systems have triggered a critical situation in the hibernation capsules. Only one crew member, Lucy Lambert, has survived the system overload. Immediately, she discovers that the capsule of her teammate, Nikolai Pavlov, is completely empty. From this moment on, Lucy will have to apply her instinct and ingenuity in order to find out what is happening on the enormous cargo spaceship Taranis and locate her teammate Pavlov.

Explore Taranis spaceship:

To progress in this adventure, Lucy will have to go through all the hidden corner of the Taranis spaceship. The infirmary, the cabins, the reactor room or the bridge will only be a few scenarios in which Lucy will go into in order to uncover the truth about the Taranis and its crew.
