

Hello! Georgia is now available on Magzter

Published on 12/23/16

Magzter adds another exciting edition of Hello! magazine to its catalogue. Like every edition of Hello! magazine, Hello! Georgia publishes exciting columns on the most admired celebrities from around the world. The magazine also covers the latest trends in beauty, fashion, home decor and travel. Magzter also publishes Hello! magazine from the UK, India and Thailand, and now brings on board Hello! Georgia, which is a delightful news to Georgian-speaking readers.

New York, New York - Magzter, the world's largest digital magazine newsstand, adds another exciting edition of Hello! magazine to its catalogue. Magzter, which has been already digitally publishing Hello! magazine from the UK, India and Thailand, and Hola! magazine from Spain and Mexico, has now brought on board Hello! Georgia, which is a delightful news to Georgian-speaking readers all over the world.

Like every edition of Hello! magazine, Hello! Georgia also publishes exciting columns on the most admired celebrities from around the world. The magazine also covers the latest trends in beauty, fashion, home decor and travel.

"We are very happy to join Magzter. It is great to have the opportunity to share Hello! Georgia with Georgians around the world. Many thanks to Magzter's professional team!" - Nanka Pavich Kikalia, Editor, Hello! Magazine Georgia

"Hello! has been one of our best-selling celebrity titles, and we are delighted to add another edition, Hello! Georgia, to our catalogue. We are quite confident that by partnering with Magzter, the magazine will reach out to millions of Georgians across the world." - Girish Ramdas, CEO, Magzter Inc.

"We always strive to add interesting magazines from every possible language and region to our world's largest catalogue of 8,500 magazines. In this direction, we are pleased to be expanding in Georgia, and we firmly believe that Hello! Georgia will add more Georgian users to Magzter." - Vijay Radhakrishnan, President, Magzter Inc.
