Espoo, Finland - Logicnap, a newly emerging mobile game development studio, is excited today to announce the launch of TiltSpace 1.0, its unique puzzle game for iOS and Android devices. TiltSpace is the company's most innovative new gaming title that blends logical thinking and game skills. Featuring over 100 challenging levels and many more worlds to be unlocked, this maze game sharpens your reaction, increases spatial sense and strengthens brain age all while having fun. Players can connect their Facebook account to keep track of interactive leaderboards. It offers addictingly dynamic gameplay and enough hard levels to keep players entertained.

TiltSpace was created to offer millions of people worldwide the ability to combine an entertaining, fun and stimulating puzzle experience all in one, right in the palm of their hands. The rules of the game are quite simple. To win the game, the player has to swipe the screen to roll all the coloured balls to their matching goals while keeping the enemy away from the goal. The score is calculated from the moves made as well the time you spend to pass the level. As you progress the game stages get harder and harder. If you're stuck then TiltSpace can help you with a hint and lets you earn additional hints by watching sponsored videos.
