Berlin-based indie developer, David Zobrist today announces Orcs 6.3, an update to his fun-to-play retro game title for iOS and Android devices. Orcs is based on the loved cookie clicker concept and extends it with fortress building and quests. The game is a unique mix of tapping, incremental and Role Playing Game highly inspired by Blizzard's success title Warcraft. Version 6.3 adds a bunch of new Quests, Orc Heroes and Buildings that expand your little fortress.

Berlin, Germany - Indie developer, David Zobrist today is proud to announce the release of Orcs 6.3, an update to his fun-to-play retro game title for iOS and Android devices. The game just reached 350,000 Installs via Google Play, 24,400 Installs via iTunes and 9,570 Installs via Amazon. It is definitely worth a shot if your looking for a good laugh.

David is also known for his App Three Points which was featured by Apple in Europe. Which spawned plenty of clones as Impossible Rush and the different twist on the concept which is the still very popular Color Switch. After the exciting and frustrating experience David started focusing on game concepts which already exist such as clicker/incremental games and make them outstanding instead of re-inventing the wheel.

Orcs is based on the loved cookie clicker concept and extends it with fortress building and quests. The game is a unique mix of tapping, incremental and Role Playing Game highly inspired by Blizzard's success title Warcraft. Version 6.3 Adds a bunch of new Quests, Orc Heroes and Buildings that expand your little fortress. After the big mobile titles like Make it Rain, or Bitcoin Billionaire, this cookie clicker game type officially launches it's new Update bringing more innovative Content to it's established Fan base.

App Description:

"We're ship-wrecked on a stranded island, unknown and uncharted. Orcs are frightened, we won't survive if no one takes the lead..." Help us! Lead us! We will follow you to fortune and glory, and together we conquer this dangerous new territory! Strength and Honor!

Orcs is one of the simplest, funniest and most addictive RPG Action game on Google Play and iTunes. If you love 8 bits games feeling and tapping games, this is your game!
