San Francisco, California - WaterField Designs, a San Francisco designer and manufacturer of custom laptop sleeves, bags and device-specific cases, debuts the slim-profile Bolt Crossbody vertical laptop bag. Available in three sizes to fit Macbooks, iPads and other devices, each Bolt includes a padded laptop compartment and a mix of functional pockets. Like bags long-popular in Asia and Europe, the compact Bolt Crossbody provides a convenient and handsome carry for commuters, professionals and adventure seekers alike.

"You're likely to carry your laptop or iPad and some essentials everywhere you go, whether you're a professional or a leisure traveler," explained Gary Waterfield, company founder. "The svelte Crossbody safely holds your valuables while keeping frequently-used items at the ready. And, it's so comfortable that you can wear it all day."

The Bolt Crossbody Laptop bag easily holds a day's necessities " Macbook or iPad, water bottle, wallet and travel documents. A premium leather flap closes with a silent magnetic snap over an expandable front pocket. Inside, a hidden scratch-free Ultrasuede(R) hutch cradles the iPhone 7 or a similarly-sized smartphone.

For frequently-used items, a body-side pocket closes with a self-locking zipper for added security. The Crossbody's gold, water-resistant lining boosts visibility of bag contents. An adjustable shoulder strap can be worn diagonally or off one shoulder, and a rear grab handle comes in handy for retrieving the Bolt from overhead bins or the trunk of a car.
