

Before Dawn Solutions acquires Caboodle personal snippet manager

Published on 05/15/17

Colorado based Before Dawn Solutions today announces the acquisition of Caboodle, the personal snippet manager from Dejal Systems, effective immediately. Elegantly simple-to-use, Caboodle provides a single place to store, organize, and find useful tidbits of text, images, PDFs, and more. In addition to this announcement, BDS has completed a major rewrite of Caboodle to support modern operating systems and be the platform on which we will build future Caboodle enhancements.

Highlands Ranch, Colorado - Dejal Systems and Before Dawn Solutions would like to announce the acquisition of Caboodle by Before Dawn Solutions, effective immediately. In addition to this announcement BDS has completed a major rewrite of Caboodle to support modern operating systems and be the platform on which we will build future Caboodle enhancements.

"Caboodle is an amazing application that we are very happy to add to our suite of applications, and as the start of our line of productivity applications," said John Martyniak, CEO of Before Dawn Solutions.

"I haven't had the time to give Caboodle the attention it deserves in recent years," says David Sinclair, owner of Dejal, "so I wanted to find a better home for it, with a developer devoted to enhancing the app. John is that developer. I'm confident that Caboodle customers will be pleased with the enhancements in version 2 and beyond."

With this announcement we are announcing the availability of Caboodle 2.0, which is a complete rewrite of the Caboodle code base, including the ability to support multiple Snippet databases. This is a paid upgrade, the first in Caboodle's history.
