

24U releases 24U SimpleDialog Plug-In 6.0 for the FileMaker 17 Platform

Published on 06/05/18

24U releases 24U SimpleDialog Plug-In 6.0 for the FileMaker 17 Platform. 24U SimpleDialog Plug-In allows FileMaker solutions to interact with users via professional looking dialogs to provide excellent user experience with minimum development effort. The plug-in has grown to a feature rich user interaction addition for FileMaker solutions, while still retaining its ease-of-use and offering syntax that's as simple as the dialog it is supposed to display. Version 6.0 now supports Native iOS apps.

Zvole, Czech Republic - 24U releases 24U SimpleDialog Plug-In 6.0 for the FileMaker 17 Platform. With 24U SimpleDialog Plug-In 6, 24U improved the input dialogs with the possibility of adding Pause/Resume and Cancel buttons and adds support for native iOS apps built with the FileMaker(R) iOS App SDK.

What's new in this version:

- * Added support for Native applications built with the FileMaker iOS App SDK
- * Input dialogs with buttons
- * Fixed minor bugs
- * Behaviour of parameter "minlines" documented
- * SDialog_SetCalculation example added

About 24U SimpleDialog Plug-In:

24U SimpleDialog Plug-In allows FileMaker solutions to interact with users via professionally looking dialogs to provide excellent user experience with minimum development effort. Since its first release back in 2001 the plug-in has grown to a feature rich user interaction addition for FileMaker solutions, while still retaining its ease of use and offering syntax that's as simple as the dialog it is supposed to display.

Most customers use 24U SimpleDialog primarily to save development time and provide better user experience in their solutions: Vincenzo Menanno, director of FileMaker development at Beezwax, said at FileMaker DevCon 2014: "The biggest value that we get with SimpleDialog is creating solutions that look professional, keep the user informed, and provide us with a great solution for our clients. SimpleDialog is very easy to use and once we use it we use it over and over."

Paul de Halle, CEO of Linear Blue says: "One of the reasons we really like the 24U SimpleDialog Plug-In is not just it's ease of use but its added value to the solutions that we develop for our clients. It allows us to put a le
