UK based LimeVibe Games today announces the Steam release date for Space Toads Mayhem, a hectic, retro-flavoured shoot 'em up for both Mac and Windows. Space Toads Mayhem is a no nonsense, no autofire hiscore attack. It's a fast-paced, reflex-based topdown shoot 'em up reviving the vibes of the games we grew to love in the 1980s. The game offers 5 hectic levels, each introducing a new trap, powerup or enemy type. The game is set to release on Steam on the 20th November 2018.

Chetwynd Aston, United Kingdom - LimeVibe Games is pleased to announce the Steam release date for Space Toads Mayhem, a hectic, retro-flavoured shoot 'em up. Space Toads Mayhem is a no nonsense, no autofire hiscore attack. It's a fast-paced, reflex-based topdown shoot 'em up reviving the vibes of the games we grew to love in the 1980s.

The game offers 5 hectic levels, each introducing a new trap, powerup or enemy type - and a jolly big boss fight and the very end. Those skilled-enough will be able to unlock Hard and Psycho difficulty modes, which significantly add to the player's punishment - but at the same time allow to score many more points.

The game is set to release on Steam on the 20th November 2018, for both Mac and Windows; and you can add it to your wishlist right now as you warm up your trigger fingers for some serious oldschool laser blasting. And don't forget to check out the game's new trailer and succulent screenshots. Press, streamers and YouTubers alike are encouraged to ping @SpaceToadsGame on Twitter with a link to their website / channel for a chance to get some free review codes.
