Recosoft ships ID2Office 2019 - Export InDesign to Word, PPT & Keynote

Published on 12/06/18

Recosoft Corporation today releases ID2Office 2019, the latest version of its InDesign to Microsoft Word, PowerPoint and Apple Keynote conversion plug-in for Mac and Windows. ID2Office converts InDesign files to common Office formats such as Microsoft Word, PowerPoint and Apple Keynote while maintaining the layout fidelity. ID2Office 2019 adds support for Adobe InDesign CC 2019, recognizes the split/span property, and now allows converting images to JPEG type.

Osaka, Japan - Recosoft Corporation the developers of workflow automation plug-ins for Adobe(R) Creative Cloud(R) and creators of PDF conversion software has released ID2Office 2019, the newest version of the InDesign to Word, PowerPoint and Keynote formats conversion plug-in for Adobe InDesign(R) CC 2019.

ID2Office 2019 adds support for Adobe InDesign CC 2019, the latest release of InDesign CC for macOS and Windows. Additionally, ID2Office 2019 recognizes the split/span property, resulting in enhanced layout preservation. Finally, ID2Office 2019 now allows converting images to JPEG type, significantly reducing the file size of image-centric documents.

"ID2Office 2019 includes many enhancements that were requested by our customers over the years; supporting InDesign CC 2019 guarantees unfettered usage of ID2Office with the latest version of Adobe InDesign"
Paramjit Chadha, MD, Recosoft Corporation

ID2Office converts InDesign files to editable Microsoft Word, PowerPoint and Apple Keynote formats; converting the text, associated styles, paragraph structure, corresponding property information, frames linking, tables, graphics and other objects while matching and maintaining the layout fidelity, resulting in enhanced workflow automation for Creative Professionals. Key New Features include:

* Support for InDesign Creative Cloud 2019:
ID2Office 2019 now supports and integrates with InDesign CC 2019. InDesign CC through CC 2018 are supported as well.

* JPEG image export:
You can now specify JPEG as the image type and specify the compression quality of the JPEG images; resulting in smaller file sizes.

* Split/Span property recognition:
ID2Office 2019 includes layout enhancements where span/split column property are recognized, and the layout is preserved as accurately as possible when converting to any of the supported formats.

* Additional InDesign property support:
Tab markers are now processed and replicated accurately. Additionally, grouped objects with text/tables are now editable in the resulting Word, PowerPoint and Keynote file.
