Abu Dhabi-based entrepreneur Huda Al Enezi announce 20Levels - Match Puzzles & Win 1.0.10

for iOS and Android devices. 20Levels makes winning different levels of the popular color-matching mobile game "real". Players are not just garnering points, they are also winning coupons that they can use for shopping at various popular retail stores. If players don't want coupons, they can choose a "Mystery Box" that, when they win, may contain anything from a smartphone or tablet to branded clothes.

United Arab Emirates - Abu Dhabi-based entrepreneur Huda Al Enezi is proud to announce the release and immediate availability of 20Levels - Match Puzzles & Win 1.0.10 for iPhone, iPad, iPod touch, and Android devices. The mobile game doesn't just entertain but also enhances the player's shopping experience. The game combines the famous color matching gaming model with exciting shopping opportunities that help the players save money big-time.

Whereas most of the color-matching games available on Google Play Store and Apple's App Store are confined to winning game points and being content with that, winning in 20Levels jumps out of your mobile phone and becomes a reality when you can save money and avail discounts through the coupons and other discount opportunities in various retail stores. The more you win, the greater the percentage of discounts that you get. Hence, playing and winning in 20Levels becomes not just enjoyable, but also profitable.

It is a simple puzzle game available both on Android and iOS. It connects real-life shoppers with real-life discounts and savings. The interface and the flow of the game have been purposely kept very simple and straightforward to appeal to the broadest user base. The focus of the game is not the complexity of solving the color matching game but gathering opportunities for saving cash and receiving gifts and discount coupons. The challenge is to finish 20 levels in as little time as possible. In between you also watch a video and answer the ASK ME to survey to get reward moves and times, to find clues to add to the excitement and sense of adventure.

Want to save time or feeling stuck? From within the game, you can purchase boosters and color matches that can remove obstacles and help you move to the next level faster and with ease.

Before you start playing the game, you can decide whether you are playing for discount vouchers and coupons from well-known brands or the "Mystery Box". Whereas, for discount vouchers and coupons, you know for which items you will be playing and attempting to score points, with the mystery box, although it is a secret what you're going to end up with, the prices are of much greater dimension such as smartphones, tablets, other expensive gadgets and appliances, and luxury clothing.

The idea of 20Levels came to Huda Al Enezi when she was exploring opportunities for generating extra income, aside from managing her family business. Although she has been closely involved with her family business for the past eight years, Huda was looking for something exciting, something that would help her pursue her ultimate dream of establishing an online business that coincides with a gaming app perfect for the online shopper that can't help but love a great deal.

"I believe that every day is a wonderful opportunity to live your dream, and 20Levels is mine," says Huda Al Enezi. "From an attempt to make an extra income, this mobile game is quickly turning into one of my most exciting entrepreneurial adventures. You are welcome to become a part of this adventure and save money in the process, or increase your customer base is a business brand."

20 Levels, allows shoppers to participate, win and redeem discounts for purchases at a number of incredible online retailers, just like yours! With every new level achieved, they will unlock a reward and as you might expect, the response has been overwhelmingly positive.

20Level is a win-win opportunity for every one game players reputed brands and retail stores and 0Sec, the developers and promoters of 20Levels whose founder and MD is Huda Al Enezi herself.
