Long Island, New York - Mobile app review publisher AlphaDigits has named top rated applications for August 2019. AlphaDigits names five top class mobile apps every month based on the reviews published in the website during that particular month. This website has now released the names of top rated mobile apps for the month of August.

Streamport (10/10): Streamark has created a content streaming app that allows you to find the content you want, sign up for a subscription or purchase one-time viewing, and manage each stream, all from the one app. The app supports what feels like an unlimited offering and lets you sign up for as many streaming service channels as you want. The core benefit to the app is the ability to manage it all from one place - no more remembering accounts for each streaming service.

Dino Car Battle (9.5/10): It's loaded with 16 graphically gripping scenes that throw you into a loop. The 16 different mini scenes are grouped into four gaming schemes: Gladiator Arena, Airport, Harbor and Stadium. Every four scenes pull you through four increasingly challenging and energizing difficulty levels. Once you get the hang of how to maneuver and attack, you will find yourself unable to put this game down. Graphics is one of the highlights in this game, as it offers a pretty good 3D effect.

Second Galaxy (9/10): Second Galaxy is a pioneer that brought the interstellar MMORPG genre to mobile devices. Although in the future, it may face be at a disadvantage compared to more hardcore games, it will still be a landmark product. According to the game trailer released by ZLONEGAME, both the graphics and the content are excellent.

Toilet Ninjas (8.5/10): Game play is basically this, for 60 seconds there will be a series of candies that magically fall from the ceiling over the toilet and you have to prevent as many as possible from landing in the bowl. You get some basic tools to start with and you can use accumulated points to buy more and better tools. As you pass through each round of 60 seconds, you hope to get better and better at keeping the toilet clear. It may not be completely clear, but you definitely don't want it to be clogged.

Snagscope (8/10): Snagscope is an easy to use and multifunctional downloader app that lets users easily save and share Periscope videos. You can even capture more than one video at a time, so you don't have to choose which ones you want to capture and miss out on the other. It's easy to see the advantages to using Snagscope over its current competitors, but every user has different needs.
